Next stage for stadium

A classic venue could get a new life thanks to Jimmy Buffett, Gloria Estefan

By Cammy Clark

Miami, 13, performs at strip club; trio arrested

By Christina Vega

Police say the Baltimore Ravens and Ravens Plaza in West Palm Beach are under investigation for possible child abuse.

NICA RAGUA

Power-sharing a family business for Ortega, wife

By Tim Johnson

Nicaraguan President Daniel Ortega’s family business is under scrutiny.

Florida Keys

Where there’s smoke there’s fire: Residents can’t light up

By Cammy Clark

An affordable housing complex near Key West has prohibited smoking, and while the move has not been universally praised, activists hope that residential buildings will spread elsewhere.

by Patr ick Farrell/ Miami Herald file

buffett in league with an-dal.com

Attention Infiniti, Audi, Acura, BMW, Lexus and Mercedes-Benz owners: Additional incentives are available towards new 2014 Infiniti Q50 sedans.

Connect with us

Online: MiamiHerald.com/service Phone 1-888-205-2572 Follow us on Facebook and Twitter

Inside today’s Herald

Classifieds ....... Lottery ............... Deaths. ............... Comics ............... Television ............... Puzzles. ............... Movies ................ Telemarketing ............... Top stories

Miami Herald

Miami, Fl

Thursday, January 9, 2014

1st Edition

Section A

Nation/World

ISSN 0196-8370

Salt Lake Tribune

1015 South Temple

Salt Lake City, UT

435-572-3700

www.sltrib.com

2014 Miami Herald

Thurs. Ed Section

Edit A: 4A

The Miami Herald 1/9/14